Organizers of the American Fisheries Conference in Anchorage have arranged for experts on Salmon Ocean Migration to be available on Wednesday,

September 14, 1 pm in the Egan Center mezzanine conference room for press interviews.

Free media registration is provided by the American Fisheries Society.

Approximately 2,300 fisheries scientists are expected to attend the week-long American Fisheries Society Meeting, including some of the world's foremost experts on fish and fisheries. The technical program includes 1,800 oral and poster presentations over four days

The American Fisheries Society is the world's oldest and largest fisheries science society, with more than 9,000 members in 70 countries. Its mission is to improve the conservation and sustainability of fishery resources and aquatic ecosystems by advancing fisheries and aquatic science and promoting the development of fisheries professionals. The society publishes four journals, Fisheries magazine, and up to a dozen books every year.
